

GLEE
(Gem Lakes Engaging Everyone)
October 8, 2015 Minutes

Yard Sale . . . Luminaries . . . Spooky . . . Easter Egg Hunt . . . Speakers . . . Contradancing . . .
Infrared Heating . . . Speed Bumps . . . Survey . . . Trunk or Treat . . . Facebook
All of the above and much more were discussed at the 6 p.m. meeting held at the Gem Lakes pavilion.

Joyce Stanley welcomed the eleven residents. After introductions, we discussed the immediate issues – Gem Lakes Directory, Yard Sale, and Spooky to Be Hungry.

Directory: The street volunteers have found it very difficult to reach the remaining 100 residents that have yet to be confirmed. Hopefully we will be able to connect with some of the residents at Octoberfest.

Yard Sale: Sandy Stow said seven residents have signed up for the garage sale so far. Garage sellers have been asked to meet Sandy at the pavilion at 5 p.m. on October 16 to pick up a copy of the City Permit and pay their $1 fee.

Spooky: This is the 10th year Gem Lakes has participated in Spooky, a fundraiser for the Golden Harvest Food Bank. Flyers will be given to our street volunteers by October 15 so they may be distributed the week of October 18. With the help of Boy Scout Troop 146, Girl Scouts, and South Aiken's ROTC, the food will be collected on October 24.

Trunk or Treat: Will not be held this year.

If you would like to know more about the other topics discussed, please join us at the next meeting on November 12 at 6 p.m. The meeting may be held at a different location because of the weather. Please check your e-mail.

The meeting ended at approximately 7:15 p.m.

Respectively submitted,
Sharon Filler, Secretary
